NOTE.

Dated.....2nd...December.....191 5.

It is noticed that in the Civil Lists published by British Indian Administrations, the names of officers are mentioned without the prefix 'Mr.' Is there any reason why the same procedure should not be adopted here?

of the Govt orders referred to above. It shews who are entitled to be addressed as "Mr." & who not. Take for example page 134 of the latest Civil list. The pay of all persons shewn in that page being Rs 40/- only graduates are shewn as Mr. If desired we can't omit all "Mr." s from the Civil list but I am afraid the change may not be generally liked.
